SATURDAY, AUGUST 4, 1866.

IT is said that a fund has been appropriated by the Democratic State Central Committee, for the purpose of buying second-hand military clothing, to be used in getting up soldiers' Clymer meetings. Gray has not been selected as the color most preferable in what to make an appearance of loyalty, but will be purchased for use at the Philadelphia Convention. Persons holding rebel flags as trophies of the war, are earnestly requested to forward them to the Chairman of the "National Union Committee" for the appropriate decoration of the wigwam in which the honorable conclave will assemble on the 14th inst.

ELSEWHERE we publish a decision just promulgated by Attorney General Stansbury, to the effect that the President has full authority, during the recess of Congress, to again appoint the candidates for public office who were rejected by the Senate. This, we presume, is preparatory to summarily disposing of all the office holders of the country who do not support "My Policy."

IN the Senatorial District composed of Mercer, Venango and Warren counties, the Republicans yesterday nominated Hon. James C. Brown, of Greenville, as their candidate for Senator. Mr. Brown formerly represented Mercer in the Lower House, and was an efficient and popular member.

CITY ITEMS.

Rhigoline Free of Charge.

This agent is made from Coal Oil, and is used for extracting teeth without pain. Ether is used in the same way for the same purpose. The process is, by converting it into a spray through a tube, by means of a hand bellows. The volatility of these two agents is such, when concentrated upon any point, with the appliances used, that ice can be formed in a very short time. It is in this way that the gums about the teeth are frozen, and while so, extracted without pain. These agents, if continued long enough, will make a person insensible to all about them, as much so as if they were taking it in any other form. Drs. Sill & Gillespie, 246 Penn street, have been using these agents since the first of May, with a good degree of success, though the opinion is, that Nitrous oxide or laughing gas can never be surpassed for this purpose. The opinion of these gentlemen as persons of science and experience, are well worthy the consideration of the public. Dr. Walter took one of his patients to the office of Sill & Gillespie, where the gas was administered, for the purpose of a surgical operation upon the eyes, which lasted five minutes. Dr. Walter pronounced the gas the best anesthetic agent now in use. The subject of this case had been placed under the influence of chloroform and either without success, while that of the gas was perfect, giving no sickness or pain.

Facts for the People.

We wish our readers to distinctly understand that there is no "humbug business" done at the Steam Dental Establishment of Dr. Quincy A. Scott, No. 278 Penn street, third door above Hand. He advertises extensively, but he means exactly what he says. He is a trustworthy and reliable man, and a skilful dentist. He don't profess to give Laughing Gas free, in order to entice people into his office, and then charge them extra for it, as has been done at other establishments in this city. He gives it positively free of charge in every case. He extracts numbers of teeth daily without the slightest pain, and makes no charge for extracting teeth when artificial teeth are ordered. He gives a full set of teeth on vulcanite with beautiful gums (such as other dentists charge $10 for,) for eight dollars. A full set for $10 which others charge from $12 to $15 for, and a full set for from $12 to $15 which he will guarantee to be better than can be made at any other establishment at any price. He is so well established in business that he don't consider it necessary to publish references, but for the sake of those who may wish them we will state that he can refer to thousands of the best families in the city and surrounding country, including ministers, physicians, lawyers, merchants, bankers, and in fact people in every department of business.

The Atlantic Cable.

It is pleasant to record the final success of the great project of uniting the two greatest continents of the world by a submarine telegraph. It is an achievement worthy of the age we live in. It will tend to still further strengthen the bonds of peace and unity now prevailing between the two countries, and will greatly facilitate commerce and trade generally. We hail it as the dawning of a new era in the world's advancement in progress. But this has got nothing to do with those cheap and elegant Boots and Shoes in store and for sale at Robinson's, No. 61 Market street. At this popular shoe depot another large invoice of tip top Gaiters, beautiful Slippers, elegant Pumps, Fine Boots, and Heavy Brogans, has just been received. These goods are not only made to sell, but to wear. Give Robinson's a call this day, if you would obtain the best bargains ever offered in the city.

Beautiful Photographs.

The pedestrian on St. Clair street is irresistably attracted to gaze into the art windows of the well known photographer, B. L. H. Dabbs. At the present time there is upon exhibition a number of photographs finished by the artist Wenzel, which, for beauty of execution, are superior to anything ever turned out in this city. One cabinet photograph of a little son of Rev. James Allison, is worthy of special attention. It is a master-piece of photographic art. Another, the picture of a little daughter of Mr. Burns, is the most faithful likeness of an earthly angel we have ever seen. The crowning photograph, however, is that of a young lady of Alliance, Ohio. It is a life-size or cabinet photograph, delicately colored, and as natural as life. There are many other specimens upon exhibition, and the admirer of the beautiful would do well to call and closely examine the many superior works of photographic art in Mr. Dabb's palatial establishment. He charges but reasonable prices for photographs, and every picture finished at his gallery bears the impress of superiority. His rooms are located at No. 26 St. Clair street.

Strength for the Exhausted.

Thousands die, as it were, inch by inch, of bodily weakness; for debility will kill as certainly, though not so quickly, as a raging fever. It is asked how the weak shall be made strong; the debilitated sustained and restored; the exhausted refilled with vital energy! We aver that of all invigorating preparations given by science to man, from the institution of the art of healing to the present hour, not one has wrought such wonders in the way of restoration as HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. This is indeed the tonic of tonics. As a revitalizing, strength-supporting, life-prolonging agent, the like of it is not to be found in the catalogue of medicines. Among the various articles used to arouse the dormant powers of nature, it stands alone—the great awakener of the paralysed physique. It not only awakens the physical powers from a state of collapse and inanition, but it imparts permanent vigor to the muscular and nervous systems—reinforcing, as it were, both the stronghold and the outworks of vitality. The aged, the decrepid, the nervous, the broken-down of both of sexes, are recommended to try it. They will assuredly find it a present help in time of trouble.

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

Internal Revenue Appointments—Analysis of the European War Situation—Commissioner of Mining Statistics—The New Revenue Law—Fenian Prisoners Released—Spanish Customs Regulations—Funeral of the Cherokee Chief.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The following internal revenue appointments were made to-day: Fisher R. Mardin, Assessor of the Seventh District, Pennsylvania; Bassett Langdon, Assessor of the First District, Ohio; Gen. E. W. Pierce, Collector of the First District, Massachusetts.

The situation may be briefly stated as follows: Prussia lays down the basis of peace, one of which is the exclusion of Austria from the German confederation, and upon the acceptance of theis basis by Austria, Prussia and Italy will agree to an armistice of five days for negotiations. France proposes to support this offer, provided Prussia will reserve the total exclusion of Austria, and make that a European question to be settled by a congress. Prussia assents to this modification, whereupon the French Minister proceeds to Vienna, and Prince Napoleon to Italy, to submit the terms agreed upon by France and Prussia.

The impression appears to be that Austria will accept the basis of peace to gain the five days, even if she intends to disagree later.

There is evidently great confusion at Vienna, and they are so hotly pressed they cannot get time to deliberate calmly.

Have you noticed the rapid conversion of the English press to German unity? That personal gift of Venetia has worked remarkably.

France hung out all her flags and placarded the results in large letters, to show the grand position of the Emperor, but the people of all Germany have shown their disgust at the idea of a French protectorate, and Bismarck has become stronger than ever, so that he has refused the Emperor's programme with impunity and substituted his own.

The Turkish government has suspended payment upon its coupon bonds, and the affairs of the Empire are drifting from bad to worse. Ten thousand Egyptian troops who have camped on the Bosphorus for two months past, were sent last week to Salonica.

The Secretary of the Treasury has, under a law passed at the late session of Congress, appointed J. Ross Browne Commissioner to collect mining statistics in the States and Territories west of the Rocky Mountains. He will proceed to the Pacific Coast by steamer on the 11th instant. This is an important mission, and will embrace statistics of the products of bullion, the population engaged in mining, description of mineral lands, capital, cost of labor and yield.

Similar statistics are collected by the British Government in Australia, at a great expense; also by the governments of Spain, Prussia Austria, and others. France has already had a scientific and statistical report made on the mineral resources of California and Nevada.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has had occasion to call attention to the fact that the new law makes the word "money" to include checks, drafts, and other instruments given for the payment of money, and therefore the receipts for checks, drafts, &c., are to be stamped, as if given for money.

The new Internal Revenue law differs from the old one concerning brokers' sales of stocks and bonds, which under the latter were assessed upon the basis of the par value, but under the former law, from August first, instant, the stamps must be affixed upon the basis of the amount of sales.

D. Thurston, Esq., our consul at Toronto, under date of July 28th, informs the State department that Dillen, Ellis, Corney and King, were, two or three days ago, discharged from prison by the Canadian Government. These persons were American citizens arrested at Fort Erie on the charge of being engaged in the Fenian raid, and discharged on the evidence submitted of their innocence.

CONSULATE GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES.—Havana, July 17, 1866.—Hon. William H. Seward, Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.—SIR: The authority of the Treasury for this Island has published a royal order, dated the 28th of May last, communicated by the Department of Altramar, in Madrid, to the Governor General, which annuls the act of the regulations of the customs. Under this article, masters of vessels have been allowed to make, within twelve hours of their arrival, additions to the manifest brought with the Spanish Consul's certificates. Such additions will not be allowed to vessels from ports in America from and after the first of September next, nor to those from ports in Europe from and after the first day of December of the present year.

By the same Royal order the extra charge of four per cent. hitherto made upon the tariff valuation of merchandize entered for examination is increased to sixteen per cent., and this is to take effect from and after the first of August. This order forbidding the admission of additional manifests has been issued, the Royal order states, by the recommendation of the Treasury authorities of Cuba.

I have the honor to be, sir,
With great respect,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed.) THOMAS SAVAGE.

Brigadier General Cooke, commanding the Department of the Platte, in general orders dated July 24th, directs the commanders of military districts to arrange between the military posts in the department, beyond the last postoffice, for the transportation of the mails by mounted soldiers, or in some cases by Indians, regularly once a week, in both directions, and in such a maner that there shall be no delays.

The President to-day gave authority for the issue of only one pardon. The recipient was a resident of Alabama, implicated in the late rebellion, and came under the twenty thousand dollars clause.

The funeral of John Ross was attended by representatives from several civilized tribes, and by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. All the pall-bearers, with the exception of a Choctaw, were Cherokees, who had served as Captains of Indian troops in the Union army during the late war.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Additional Local Matters on Third Page.

Thrilling Account of a Burglar's Death.

The following singular item we clip from the Erie Dispatch. Perhaps its namesake in this city will smell a huge rat in it as we do: It is a well known fact that quite a number of our residences have recently been entered and plundered of many of their valuable contents. Jewelry, money and clothing have rewarded the enterprising thieves, who have hitherto escaped, despite the utmost efforts of our vigilant police.

We have now to chronicle another attempt at robbery quite as bold and impudent as any that have yet taken place. Wednesday afternoon while a young girl, the daughter of one of our old citizens, was sitting in the drawing room, she heard a slight noise in the hall. She walked softly to the door and discovered the door ajar and the thief walking quickly, though very stealthily up stairs. She waited a moment, then following cautiously observed him enter a front chamber, the door of which being opened exposed to view a tempting array of jewelry and other articles of bijouterie scattered about the toilet bureau. With a presence of mind wonderful in one so young, she hastily closed and fastened the door, but not before catching a glance of a most vicious-looking pair of eyes. She descended to the drawing room almost overcome with agitation at the success of her bold experiment, for she was alone in the house. She waited in breathless anxiety until dark, when her parents returning, she communicated the startling intelligence to them of the thief she had so dexteriously caged.

Mr. Smith seized a mallet and Mrs. Smith another, and both ascended to the chamber. Upon entering they discovered the thief, partially screened by the bureau. Mr. S. demanding his business there, received no reply save a malignant glance, accompanied by a dash towards the door, which Mrs. S. quickly pushed to, while Mr. S. gave him a blow with his mallet. The wretched creature now rushed from one side of the room to the other, making frantic efforts to escape the blows levelled at him by Mr. and Mrs. Smith. Finally a crushing blow on the head stretched him senseless. One would suppose humanity should now have prompted a cessation of hostilities, but Mr. S. was seen to kick the inanimate form, and then carried him down stairs and threw him, all bleeding and senseless, into the street. In the morning the poor outcast was found stark and stiff, having probably bled to death during the night. The Common Council have taken no steps to remove the remains, and they are still to be seen in the vicinity of the Baptist Church.

During the melee a blow from Paterfamalias aimed at the robber came near disabling Mrs. Smith instead, while a fierce lunge from her mallet (they were croquet mallets,) shattered several valuable panes of glass. It is to be hoped the fate of this unfortunate thief may prove a salutary lesson to other evil doers.

News for the Ladies.

During the reign of the "grand monarch" Louis the XV. of France, Paris became noted for the beauty and elegance of their women. The cause of this notoriety can be attributed to the fact that while the rest of Europe paid little or no attention to the matter of dress, as a means of enhancing their personal appearance, the daughters of La Belle France secured the most beautiful and costly fabrics, from the cashmere of Persia to the fine thread laces of Normandy, for personal adornment. A gloomy recluse might term this vanity, but a philosopher would call it a natural desire to appear well in society, and to use that which nature in her prodigality gave us for comfort and beauty. The ladies of America have also gained a reputation for being the best dressed women of the present century, and this is not to be wondered at, as the style, quality and variety of dress goods in the market now have never been equalled, much less surpassed. To realize the truth of this assertion you have only to call at the establishment of Bates & Bell, No. 21 Fifth street, and examine their varied and well selected stock of silks, satins, merinos, chintz, muslins, calicos and ladies' furnishing goods. Here can be found every thing essential to make an outfit for an empress, and at prices sufficiently reasonable to satisfy the most economical.

Divorced.—A few days since a divorce was given to Isabella Manning, granting her a legal separation from her husband Robert Manning, on the ground of adultery. In the evidence submitted to the court, it was shown that the respondent Robert Manning had been guilty of adultery on fourteen different occasions, the criminal intercourse being with a different person each time. Besides this it was shown that he had been cohabiting with a woman of loose character, at the same time he was living with his wife. With such an array of evidence, it is not to be wondered at, that the application of Mrs. Manning was granted with little hesitancy.

A Wife Beater in Durance.—William Windhart was lodged in jail, yesterday, on a warrant sued out by Justice Buhoup, of Duquesne borough. It appears the relations existing between William and his better-half are not of that happy character that would cause even spinsters to envy Mrs. Windhart the possession of such a connubial partner, the ungallant Henry having accustomed himself to the pernicious of beating his wife.

A Dark Affair.—Two dusky denizens of Hayti, named Julia Topman and Jacob Harvey, indulged in a free fight yesterday at the head of Wylie street. As Julia was the weaker vessel, she, of course, got the worst of the battle. In order to "get even" she appeared before Alderman Butler and made a charge of assault and battery against her antagonist, who was arrested, but released on giving bail for a hearing to-day.

Committed.—Justice Barker of South Pittsburgh committed three persons to jail yesterday, named Lizzie and George Wilson, and Mary Campbell; the two women for vagrancy, and the gentleman for disorderly conduct.

Hamill's Reception.

Yesterday at half-past one o'clock, the champion oarsman of America, James Hamill, arrived at the Union Depot, from Philadelphia. Quite a number of Jimmy's admirers assembled at the Station to congratulate him on his safe return from Europe, and to express their sympathy in his late defeat for the aquatic championship of the world. True to that native modesty, which has ever been a chief characteristic of the champion's nature, he got off the train at the outer depot, where carriages and friends awaited him. He was escorted through the principal streets to the Duquesne Engine House, by a large procession, headed by a brass band, where he was received by three hearty cheers and a tiger, given with such a gusto as to leave no doubt in the minds of those within hearing distance as to Jimmy's popularity, despite his late defeat on the Tyne. In the evening he attended a grand complimentary benefit given in his honor at the Academy of Music. The house was comfortably filled, and the entertainment passed off as pleasantly as the most sanguine expected. Save an indecorous display in one of the private boxes, nothing occurred to mar the performance or detract from the eclat of the reception.

A Terrible Death.

At New Philadelphia, Ohio, a few days ago, Mrs. D. W. Stambaugh, of that place, was fatally burned while kindling a fire in a cooking stove. The fire did not seem to burn very readily, whereupon she poured carbon oil upon it—the oil ignited, and the flames reached the can in her hand in an instant, causing a terrific explosion which was heard a distance of several squares. Her clothes were completely saturated with the oil, and of course enveloped in flames in less time than it takes to pen these few words. In this terrible condition she ran out of the house, and across to the residence of Dr. O'Donnell, on the lot. Mr. F. C. Miller, who resides on the opposite side of the street, hearing her screams, ran to her assistance. Although completely enveloped in flames, she had complete presence of mind, and stood at the cistern while Mr. Miller dashed water on her burning garments. The flames were extinguished—but her clothing was entirely consumed, and her body a charred mass as high as to her breast. Her sufferings were indescribable, and in this awful condition she lingered until Saturday morning, when death kindly relieved her of pain.

Warden White.

A card has been inserted in several of our city journals reflecting upon the official character of Warden White, of the county jail. This is, to say the least, very unjust, as we believe no man in the community could be selected who would do his duty more justly, and as impartial, as Mr. White. He, like all other persons having charge of such institutions, cannot pander to every prisoner who finds his way into jail, and owing to the rigor of the rules which have been established for the government of the prison, must necessarily incur the dislike of fellows too dull and ignorant to realize their position. The imputation that favors to prisoners are bought from him with money, needs no refutation—since his character for honesty and integrity in this neighborhood stands too high to be called into question by any body in or out of jail. Jail is a place of punishment, not pleasure, and sensible men who have been confined there have yet to utter a complaint against the Warden. We feel that we but do our duty to a worthy gentleman and efficient officer, when we pronounce the charges against him false and malicious.

Besieged.

Eliza Patterson, Elizabeth Bole and Joseph Patterson, occupy a frame tenement at the corner of Try street and Pennsylvania Avenue, in the Eighth ward.

Inspired with a goodly portion of bad whisky, yesterday, they became quite boisterous, so much so that their neighbors had to repair to the Mayor's office, where they related the circumstance and had a posse of police sent to arrest the guilty trio. On their arrival the police discovered that the inmates had become apprised of their being sent for, and had so effectually barricaded all the entrances, that the officers were unable to effect the purpose of their mission. After resorting to all manner of expedients, the officers at length sent for Alderman Lynch and officer Conner, to aid them in the reduction of the citadel. But even the strategic abilities of the Alderman failed, and at ten o'clock last night the siege was given up in despair, and Patterson and his companions left master of the situation.

United States Court.

The arguments in several important cases was heard yesterday, in the United States Court, Hon. Wilson McCandless on the bench. The first was the case of the United States vs the distillery of Jacob Hays, located in Butler county. This distillery and some forty gallons of whisky were seized some time since, and a libel of forfeiture filed. S. A. Purviance, Esq., appeared for the proprietor of the establishment, and District Attorney Carnham for the United States. Mr. Purviance also made an argument in the case of the United States vs. the distillery of Newbury Shorts, located in Tioga county, Mr. Carnham appearing for the United States. John Barton, Esq., was also heard on the question of the jurisdiction of the Court in the case of Henry Featherstone vs. the steamboat "Emma Logan." The papers in the several cases were taken in charge by the Court, and decisions will be rendered in a few days.

Death of Judge Patton.

Hon. John E. Patton, formerly Associate Judge for Crawford County, died in Conneautville on Sunday, at the age of sixty-three years. He was a native of Centre County, this State, and resided in his native County and in Clarion, till 1838, when he removed to Conneautville, which was his home till the time of his death. In 1858 he was elected Associate Judge upon the Republican ticket. In 1853, he became President of the First National Bank of Conneautville, which position he held till a week before his death. He had been in feeble health for ten years, and died of consumption. The funeral services took place on Tuesday. No man in our county was more highly esteemed by all who knew him than Judge Patton. He was a man of the purest integrity, sound judgment, and correct principles, and in his death Western Crawford suffers an irreparable loss.

Ferry's New Book Store.—Our friend, Mr. Daniel Ferry has opened one of the cosiest and neatest book, print and periodical stores in the city, on Smithfield street, near Seventh. He has a finely selected stock of pens, paper, pencils, ink, and all kinds of stationary. He likewise has a full line of fancy goods and perfumeries which he offers lower than can be obtained anywhere in the city. The most popular magazines, novels, periodicals, and daily and weekly papers are constantly kept on hand. We cheerfully commend Mr. Ferry as an active, worthy, honest, and fair dealing gentleman, in every respect worthy of an unlimited public patronage.

Paid the Costs.—John Lucas and George Williams, participants in the colored picnic at Glenwood, on the 1st inst., were arraigned before the Mayor yesterday to answer a charge of assault and battery preferred against them by Rachel Blackson. After some conversation Rachel agreed to conciliate, and the matter was settled by the parties accused paying the costs.

False Pretense.—James Murphy was brought before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, on a charge of having procured twenty-five dollars worth of clothing from the firm of Robinson & Shane by false and fraudulent representations. Murphy is employed in Zug's rolling mill, in the Fifth ward. He will have a hearing on Monday.

Collared Him.—David M. Richardson appeared before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, and made oath against Joseph Murray for assault and battery. The offence consisted in Murray taking Richardson by the collar of the coat and jerking him around in a rude manner. The accused was arrested and held to bail for a hearing to-day.

Superintendent Elected.—Professor R. B. Murray, of Youngstown, has been tendered and has accepted the Superintendency of the Schools of Meadville, Pa. The reputation gained by professor M. while Superintendent of the Union School at Mercer led to this very complimentary call to a wider field of usefulness.

Recovering.—Fanny Smith, the young girl who was raped at Hatfield, on Saturday night last, is now out of danger and will be able to appear against her atrocious assailants in a few days.

Escaped.—Jesse Baldwin, arrested on a charge of rape in Meadville, made his escape from the officers having him in charge, and thus far has not been recaptured.

Fined for Sunday Liquor Selling.—Mrs. Kenney and Sarah Peoples were fined fifty dollars and costs, by Mayor McCarthy, yesterday, for selling liquor on Sunday.

—The theory of the recently deceased aged German physician, that his life was greatly prolonged by sleeping with his head to the North, finds an accompanying confirmation in the fact that most American politicians, who have for scores of years laid their heads to the South, are very dead.

—The number of rations issued by the Freedmen's Bureau during ten months, to destitute whites and blacks in the South, was 7,923,560, of which upward of 2,000,000 were drawn by whites. Most of the suffering among the latter class was in Alabama and Arkansas.

—An Indianna school teacher attempted to chastise a female scholar, when a young fellow threatened to shoot him, whereupon the master drew his own pistol and shot the boy, who returned the fire, hitting his mark. Both were badly wounded.

—Advices from the City of Mexico state that everybody there believes that Maximilian will, ere long, give up the throne and leave. His wife has already left for Europe.

Get the Best—They Always Give Satisfaction.

Every week, Dr. Quincy A. Scott is called upon to insert Artificial Teeth in cases where other dentists have tried, been paid, and failed, and in every case his work gives entire satisfaction. He is quite an artist in his line of business, and has merely to examine a case to know how to articulate the teeth so that they will present a handsome and natural appearance, and will masticate the food thoroughly. His prices are lower than those of any dentist in the city, and he will guarantee his work to be superior. So it would better for any of our readers who are in want of teeth, to call upon the Dr. in the first place, and thereby save their time and money. We would also assure those persons who are suffering with diseased and unsightly teeth that they can have them extracted without any pain whatever, by calling upon Dr. Scott. He has extracted for over ten thousand persons within the last seven years, and among this large number there is not one case in which his process has proved injurious. On the contrary, he can refer to numbers of his patients who claim to have been benefited in renewed health. He extracts numbers daily by the new "Rhigolene or Vapor" process, and gives pure Laughing Gas to those who desire it, without charge. He makes no charge for extracting when artificial teeth are ordered, and gives a full set on Vulcanite, with beautiful gums, for eight dollars. Remember his number, 278 Penn street, third door above Hand.

FACTS VS. THEORY.

On the 29th of July the New York Post contained one of those sophistical and pretensious leaders, by which, for some months past, it has been endeavoring to smooth its descent into the camp of the rebellion. The base of it was the old refrain that the world in general is governed too much, and that the American part of the world in special is likely to be ruined by too many laws made at Washington to guard the rights of all classes of citizens, and to restrain the craft or violence of such as are disposed to invade the rights of their neighbors. Freedmen's Bureau Bills, Civil Rights Bills, and all kindred inventions were particularly offensive, being perilous devices by which an absolute centralization of the government would be accomplished, and the liberties of all perish in the attempt to protect a part who are in imminent danger. It was better to trust pretty much every thing to public opinion; to persuade, argue, remonstrate; and leave the issue to time and chance.

The next day the Post received the news of the New Orleans massacre; and then it made the grand discovery that the negroes in that city, and throughout most of the Southern country, are like lambs in the midst of wolves. It perceives the folly of lambs, when attacked by wolves, attempting to argue the question of rights, or attempting, by entreaty, to escape being devoured. Free speech and a free press may be good enough in their way, and under other circumstances, but are not exactly the thing in that emergency. Hence it goes on to propound.

"As for the tale of a crowd of negroes armed and marching through the streets—everybody in wolf land knows that it is the sheep who are constantly in the habit of ferociously attacking the peaceable and innocent wolves. It is scarcely worth while to send such idle tales by telegraph. The blacks are not likely to attack anybody—not even when they are themselves first attacked, it seems, for we do not hear of any rioters being killed. We advise the colored men of New Orleans and the South generally to defend themselves when ruffians attack them, and to take life for life and limb for limb. That is the best way for them to secure respect for themselves, in a community which elects Monroe for its Mayor. They are numerous enough; let them strike back, once, and strike hard. The cowardly wretches who deny justice to men because they are black, will leave them alone when they find that their victims know how to protect themselves."

No man of common intelligence and honesty will deny that blacks possess the right of self defence as broadly and indefeasibly as other people; but, under the peculiar condition of affairs existing at the South, the exercise of that right, as recommended above, would lead to scenes at which humanity would shudder. True, if other means of redress are denied, if the only alternatives left the blacks are either to consent to have their nearly acquired rights wrested from them and trampled in the dust of the streets, or else to assert them with what paralyzed power they possess; we cannot doubt that they ought to accept the latter. But we hold it to be much wiser and safer that the public sentiment of the whole country, rectified by many years of unremitted discussion, and solidified by the great events of the war, should be enacted into laws in conformity to the late amendment of the Constitution. It is due to loyal men of all sections, and of all races, that the revolted States—as organizations, and the people thereof as individuals, should be made to feel and respect their obligations under that Amendment before they are again entrusted with the exclusive enforcement of local and municipal authority. This is all the more important because four millions of the population are denied all participation in the government. In some of the States these people actually constitute a majority of the inhabitants. Nor are they simply denied the possession of those political rights, the exercise of which would prove their surest protection. They are exposed on all sides to the most embittered hostilities. The most violent and unreasonable prejudices are arrayed against them. Their condition is analagous to that of Christian ages, living under Mahometan rule and surrounded by Mahometan neighbors; or like Jews, in the middle ages, in all Christian communities. It certainly sounds bravely to tell the blacks, so situated, they have rights, and to maintain them by taking life for life; but we apprehend that such advice, however natural it may be, would be productive only of mischievous consequences. Nor is it plain to us, that the loyal whites of the North acquit themselves of the obligations they are under to the loyal blacks of the South by giving them sanguinary advice. As we understand the case, the loyal men of the nation—the only rightful possessors of the government—are under the highest obligations to put the blacks of the South in a condition of security. If to do this it becomes necessary for Congress, under its newly acquired powers, to pass laws, and for the President to enforce those laws by the military power, we have no fears of the results. Such powers, when exerted for right ends, are never dangerous. The protection of rights is always in order.

THE ADMINISTRATION AND THE MASSACRE.

Upon a full survey of all the circumstances preceding, attending and following the New Orleans massacre several points are distinctly seen:

1. That the men engaged in the riots belong to the party of the rebellion; that in it they were actuated by the feelings and principles in which the rebellion had its origin and by which it was sustained; and that the object of it, two-fold in aspect, was one in essence—to crush loyal men, and to keep the control of the State in the hands of the enemies of the Union.

2. That the rioters and murderers are the supporters, and only supporters, of the President's Policy—not because they like either him or the Union, but because his Policy plays into their hands, and would enable them to gather and repossess on the field of politics many of the advantages they lost on the field of battle—and the retention of which is in violation of the public safety and in contravention of the rights and interests of all men who stood by the government in its time of agony.

3. That the sympathies of the President were with the rioters, and that he gave them assurances he would not interpose by military force until it was demonstrated the municipal authorities were not competent to deal with the offenders.

4. That the Mayor is a notorious rebel; that most of the police officers serving under him were rebel soldiers; that their design was not to put down the rioters, but to suppress the Constitutional Convention.

5. That whatever professions may be made at Washington of displeasure at the demoniac outbreak, the result is not displeasing to the President and his supporters—except so far as it tends to loosen what hold they had upon the loyal population of the Northern States. The object of the defeating the Convention is accomplished.

6. That what has been done in New Orleans is likely to be repeated in various other towns of the Southern States. Indeed, it is manifest that the New Orleans riot is but the outcropping, on a large scale, of the increasing drift of rebel sentiment in the revolted States; that cases of the assassination of loyal blacks and whites are everywhere common; that men of Northern birth, settled in those States since the war closed, are exposed to great insecurity, and liable at any moment to be driven out; and that the whole course of the Administration tends to encourage these irregularities and to shield the perpetrators of them.

PHASES OF INFIDELITY.

Renan's Life of Jesus has produced quite a sensation in the religious world. Like all attempts to undermine the Christian system, which has firmly stood for ages, it will be short-lived, and will be another monument of the fruitless efforts to cast reproach on Christ and the dispensation of the Gospel he came to establish among men. Infidelity, in its various forms, has sought to overthrow Christianity, and in some instances the power of might has prevailed over right. Jewish infidelity crucified its founder. The Pagan, in imitation of the Jew, endeavored to extirpate the Christian by force. Science based on Roman ethics, endeavored to convict Jesus and his Apostles of the crime of imposition. Still the Gospel triumphs.

Infidels of the most reckless kind have admitted that as Christianity has gained sway, there has been a marked advance in the political and social condition of the nations most under its influence. The Christian Intelligencer, a sterling paper, well says in an article on the "Romance of Infidelity," from which some points of interest in this article are called, that during the last twenty-five years, infidelity has gone through a gamut of changes, which proves that however active it may be in its opposition to the inspired oracles, it can find, as its own confessions demonstrate, no fixed and stable ground whereon it dares erect any permanent works, wherein it may assemble its forces, and prepare for a life and death encounter.

At the beginning of the period named, the would-be profound scholars of that day fancied that Moses was greatly at fault; and especially the first chapter of Genesis. Geologists and others tried to mend history. The undertaking resulted in the "Vestiges of Creation," a work, of which, it has truly been said, "went up like a rocket and came down like a stick." Then we had the neological and rationalistic and infidel systems of Germany. But these systems were varied in their form, and the several advocates, wrangled so much among themselves, that nothing seriously was accomplished. Philosophy and science have failed to move the strong foundations of revealed religion.

The Intelligencer represents Earnest Renans' work as being in the form of a romance of infidelity, and a marvel of literary beauty. The author appears in the foreground with his freshly invented history of Christianity, "laden with bouquets of flowers from Carmel and the gardens of Damascus, his fingers are wet with the dews of Hermon and the rejoicing waters of Jordan. Among his locks is honey deposited by the bees of Bethlehem, and his voice is attuned to the low, plaintive notes which the daughters of Jerusalem raise in the evening hour when they sing their hymns of hope on the slopes of Olivet."

This work indicates the genius, vivacity, and enthusiasm of the writer. He however does not trammel himself by the rigid constraints to which writers of history are bound to submit. He molds and shapes his views and theories of evangelical narratives picking out here and there, what suits his purpose and rejecting what does not, assuming to know of what Jesus said and did than they who were associated with him in his daily life. Renans luscious periods will doubtless please the ignorant, superficial and sentimental skepticism of the day, but cannot do positive harm to well instructed Christians.

CHRISTIAN COMMISSION IN EUROPE.

The work of organizing means, similar to those used by the United States Christian Commission, has been commenced some time ago in the Italian army. The Association is formed for the relief of the wounded on the principles established in the International Congress of Geneva. It has the sanction of the Government, and works in harmony with the military authorities. Under its superintendence are organized ambulances and sanitary squads, who are attached to the various divisions of the army as supplementary to the regular military ambulances. In these ambulances and squads are enrolled, trustworthy and capable men, who are willing to follow at their own charges, for the purpose of administering consolation or help in any way that may present itself or advisable, to the sick, the wounded and the dying. Money is being forwarded from England to aid this praiseworthy movement. Quite a number of men have volunteered for the service, and who are eager for it.

Rumors are again afloat that for sometime past the health of the Pope has appeared to be failing. There may be grounds for these fears as Pius IX., the present Pope is seventy-four years old. He has occupied the Papal throne twenty years. Whatever may be the truth of these reports, considerable importance is attached to the feeling prevalent in Rome that no Pope will hold his office longer than did St. Peter, who is said to have governed the Church twenty-five years. Adrian I, was Pope nearly twenty-four years; Pius VI twenty-four years, six months and fourteen days; Pius VII twenty-five years, five months and six days, whilst several other Popes governed the Church for twenty-one years. An exchange says it is generally agreed that the whole number of Popes was 259.

—The Houston Telegraph says the colored ladies of that place are dressing in a style surpassing that of the Queen of Sheba or Cleopatra, and freighting the atmosphere with delicious odors of night blooming cereus, musk, cologne, ottar of roses, mushrooms, pine-apples, and every thing sweet.

—An American circus has been travelling about Switzerland with great success this summer, but at Friburg, last month, the male elephant, over-fatigued by the constant marching, and irritated by the rough treatment of his keeper, suddenly seized his keeper and tossing him to a great height, on his fall crushed his chest with his foot before any assistance could be afforded. As it is generally understood that after once killing a man those animals are dangerous, the director of the circus decided upon having it killed, and for that purpose applied to the authorities of Friburg for a piece of cannon. This was granted, and the animal having been enticed into a favorable position, the gun was fired, and the brute fell dead.

—It is asks what Austria intends to do with the iron crown of Lombardy, if she intends to preserve that historical relic, now that the plains of Italy have slipped from her grasp? The crown, in 774, was received by Charlemagne from Pope Adrian I. In 1452 it was carried back to Rome, where it did duty at the coronation of Frederick IV, and in 1530 Charles V placed it on his head at Bologna. In May, 1805, another conqueror seized upon it at Milan. At present it is in the hands of the Austrians, who sent it to Vienna when war was declared in 1850.

—The French Academy have very wisely selected as the subject for the prize poem of next year: "The Death of President Lincoln." It must be admitted that the forty have been most judicious. Few themes are more suggestive or more suited to inspire a poetic mind with noble and striking thoughts. While exalting the memory of the man who abolished slavery, it is evident that it will not be possible to avoid the glorious theme of liberty.

—It seems strange that while the great Atlantic Cable has been successfully laid, there should have been no attempt since last year to repair the submarine line from Heart's Content to Cape Breton. It is to false economy alone that this delay is due. Instead of fishing for the old cable, as the owners did last year, but without success, they should have at once laid down a new one.

The Diamond Market—Its Filthy Condition

Persons visiting the Diamond Market during the last two months could not fail to be impressed with the fact that the place is filthy in the extreme. Under and around the stands lay [illegible] of vegetable matter, in such an advanced state of decomposition that the air is freighted with the disagreeable [illegible] arising therefrom. To those who have visited the French market in the Crescent City, redolent with the odor of flowers, or the neat, clean and commodious marts of the Quaker City, the contrast between their condition and ours must be strikingly apparent. In either of the markets mentioned, one is impressed with the cleanly air that pervades every department—the stalls of snowy whiteness and covered with spotless linen, the hooks on which the meat is hung of brass, glittering in their brightness, while the floors of cement are thoroughly washed every morning, giving no opportunity for filth or decayed matter to accumulate.

To our own market what a contrast. The building on the south side of Market street, although not faultless, is very creditable, and should be a source of pride to its projectors, but the other is simply ridiculous, having more the appearance of a mammoth slaughter-house, dingy and black, than a place where food is exposed for sale. The first floor is [illegible] whose brightness have been somewhat marred by insect deposits, allowed to remain undisturbed by brush or broom for a number of years. The floor is paved with soft brick, the chinks between which afford ample room for scraps of filth and offal to form a bed of rotten substances, highly injurious to the health of the community. Any person possessing with a nasal organ gifted to fulfill its functions, must have [illegible] when their purchases were concluded, and they turned their backs upon the vender's paradise.

Before concluding our reflections, we wish to return the thanks of our market going population to the energetic individual, who for the first time in five years has subjected the north market to a cleaning out.

The floor within the last few days has actually been scrubbed, and in several instances we noticed white linen on the stalls underneath the meat. Thank Providence for putting it into the good man's heart, to do even this much. We suppose we can now pass within a [illegible] of the building, without applying our hand to our nasal organ to shut out the foul stench "that smells to Heaven."

Does Advertising Pay?

In a brief interview with one of our most liberal patrons, yesterday, we enquired of his experience of the policy of advertising. We regard his answer as noteworthy, and commend it to the consideration of others.

He said the same kind of business in which he is engaged had been carried on at the same stand for ten years by one, and nearly ten years by another predecessor. That these men gave diligent attention to their business and were sober and frugal, but spent nothing for advertising. They were barely able to eke out a living. That he bought the concern ten years ago and began debtor for the entire establishment. He felt poor and only expended fifty dollars per annum in each of the business papers the first year; that subsequently he increased his expenses to several thousand dollars annually for advertising—and the result has demonstrated its marvellous utility, as he is to-day worth $175,000, and his annual profits constantly increasing.

We know of no instance of failure of any one who advertises freely in order to greatly extend his trade. Examples of success resulting from a free use of printing ink in this city are numerous. We regret to add that examples of men who are penny wise and pound foolish on this subject are also numerous. A little advertising may do but little good—but habitual and liberal advertising has never failed to pay well, sometimes enormously. Think of this matter, reader, and follow the line of safe precedents.

From the Record.

Commonwealth vs. Martin Nicholas. Warrant issued July 30th, 1866; Wm. McCully, Constable. On oath of Michael Hammel, charging defendant with disorderly conduct, by calling him, in a mad and angry passion, a thief, &c. July 31st, defendant brought up, and in an unbecoming, rough and abusing language claimed to have his case taken to a higher court, on account that he could not get justice done to him from the 'Squire. On this bold attempt towards the Justice of the Peace bail was required in the sum of $300 for the defendant's appearance at the next Court of Quarter Sessions, to be held in October term. Adolph Sandlander became bail for the defendant's appearance at said court, in the above sum, &c. Michael Hammel held in $500 to testify.

I certify the above to be a true transcript of all the proceedings had before me in the above case, and as they are of the record on my docket. Witness my hand and seal this 2d day of Aug., A. D. 1866.

Aug. 2, 1866, returned to Court.

Good News for Hucksters.

If asked the question, "What is the staple product of Greene County?" we would reply "Blackberries," says the Waynesburg Republican. Wagons come loaded with blackberries; ruddy faced farmers' boys trudge in laden with blackberries; every urchin in town has its mouth and hands stained with blackberries; every kitchen is reeking with the perfumes of blackberries; and, in fact, everybody seems to have a "hankerin'" after blackberries. Hucksters from the adjoining counties carry them away by the bushels. It would be difficult to give a correct estimate, but at a rough guess we would say at least five thousand gallons have been disposed of in our town alone the past week. They sell at twenty-five cents per gallon.

Since writing the above, we must acknowledge that Greene County is "no whar." The Morgantown Post says in their section of the country "sales are made at fifteen cents a gallon, and several hundred bushels have already been sold."

Watch and Chain Lost—Reward.—Yesterday a young married lady of Oakland, while en route to pay a visit to some friends in Birmingham, lost a heavy gold watch and chain, which being a present from a friend, was prized by the lady far above the intrinsic value. The articles are supposed to have been lost in either the Oakland and East Liberty or the Birmingham and Brownstown line. A reward of twenty-five dollars will be given for their return to John W. Pittock's periodical store, opposite the Postoffice.

Knocked into the Gutter.—John H. Merryman was before Alderman Lynch, yesterday, charged with assault and battery, on oath of Justin Jones. It appears that the residences of the parties adjoin each other, in the Sixth ward. The dispute arose out of Merryman's domestics sweeping filth on the pavement, in front of Jones' door, whereupon the latter assailed Mr. Merryman for allowing her to do so. The dispute was concluded by Merryman knocking Jones into the gutter. The accused gave bail for a hearing to-day.

A Legal Point Raised.—Officer Sarber arrested a colored individual named Charles Ray Jones, on Wednesday evening, at Masonic Hall, for disorderly conduct and brought him before Alderman Donaldson, who fined him $3,50 and costs. His Honor Mayor McCarthy, claiming that an officer is going without the pale of his duty to bring a case of disorderly conduct before an Alderman, issued a warrant and had the policeman arrested. He gave bail for a hearing to-day, when the legality of the question will be tested.

Serious Accident.—Yesterday a laborer named Michael Gilroy, employed at the Pennsylvania Forge, on Second street, was seriously injured by a heavy mass of rock blown from the hillside by quarrymen falling upon his leg. The flesh was much lacerated, but no bones were broken. The injured man was conveyed to his residence, on High street, where he received proper medical attention. The injury is not of such a character as to render amputation necessary.

Gallantry Awarded.—We are pleased to announce that Lieutenant Thomas Williams, Jr., of the Fifth Regular Artillery, has been confirmed Captain by brevet, for gallantry and good conduct at the battle of Manassas No. 2. He has also been breveted as Major for meritorious conduct during the war. The honors thus conferred upon a worthy soldier are all the more flattering since they were entirely unsolicited.

Wouldn't Endorse.—A gentleman presented himself at the Mayor's office, yesterday, with a check for $6,50 on the Farmers Deposit Bank and desired his Honor to sign his name on the back of it as an endorsement of its genuineness. As the magistrate had never seen the individual before, it is needless to add that he "signed not the bond."

Regrets It.—The local of the Wheeling Intelligencer says: "Wheeling lacks two things to make good its right to be called a city—one is a pawn broker's shop, the other an intelligence office. Are there not enterprising individuals among us who will undertake to supply us with these peculiarly city institutions?"

A Bear Story.—We learn that one evening last week, while on his way to a deer lick, near Clearfield, Josiah Lamburn came across six bears—two old and four young—and that he shot three of them, one old one and two cubs. He also wounded the other old one, but owing to the darkness it effected its escape.

Match Game.—The Hygeia and Atlantic Base Ball Clubs play a match game this afternoon at the grounds of the former in Oakland. A very pleasant time may be safely anticipated, as the hospitality of the gallant "Hygeias" is proverbial.

Dull.—Our merchants are experiencing a very dull season just now, trade having almost entirely dropped off. About the latter part of this month business is expected to revive, and knowing ones predict a season of unusual activity in those circles.

Nuisance.—John Patton was fined $5 and costs yesterday, by Alderman Morrow, for maintaining a nuisance on his premises on Hill street in the Second ward. J. B. Williams a distant officer of the Board of Health was the complainant.

Adams Express Company.—This enterprising Company is erecting a very large and commodious building for the accommodation of its extensive business, on Grant near the corner of Seventh street.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other articles. jy11:d&w

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM NEW YORK.

The Cholera—Arrival of Emigrants for July—The Affair at Fort Schuyler—A Young Woman Shot Dead—The Soldiers Under Arrest.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The cholera continues to increase in this city, there being twenty-four cases and ten deaths reported yesterday. A case of cholera has occurred at Castle Garden, and the same feeling is exhibited at the proximity of the Battery Barracks Hospital.

From Brooklyn the report is more favorable, although there has not been much difference in the number of cholera cases. Yesterday sixteen cases and only three deaths were reported.

The cholera has broken out in the Kings County Truant House. There has been seventy-seven cases of cholera in Kings county since the 27th ult.

At a meeting of the Board of Health yesterday evening a resolution was passed requesting the authorities having charge of the institutions on the Island to forbid the inmates coming to New York during the prevalence of the cholera.

During the month of July just passed, [illegible] emigrants have been landed at this port from Europe.

In the affair at Fort Schuyler, noted yesterday, a young woman was shot dead and a man severely beaten. It appears a party of soldiers belonging to the First United States Artillery, in a barroom, attacked Alexander Elliott, claiming that he had been involved in a quarrel with one of their friends. He protested that he was not the man, and ran for his life after having his arm broken, and escaped. The soldiers went to his house where they shot his cousin, Ellen Hicks. The soldiers were arrested. Their names are Thomas Fitzgerald, Michael Burke, John Doran, [illegible] Martin, John C. Burke, Charles Burke and John Mooney.

The New Orleans Riots—Important Official Dispatches.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.,
August 1, 1866.

To Albert Voorhies, Lieut. Governor, and Andrew J. Herron, Attorney General, of New Orleans:

Were the civil authorities, State or Federal, consulted with by General Baird before he declared martial law? Could not the civil authorities, State and Federal, enforce the law and preserve order, with the aid of the military, and without the necessity of martial law? I hope that order has been restored, and the riot not as disastrous as represented. Please show this dispatch to General Baird.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

In order that the following from Gen. Sheridan be fully understood, it should be stated that he was absent from New Orleans when the disturbances commenced in that city.

NEW ORLEANS, August 1, 1866.—To Gen. U. S. Grant, Washington: You are doubtless aware of the serious riot which occurred in this city on the 30th. A political body, styling itself the Convention of 1864, met on the 30th for, as it was alleged, the purpose of remodeling the present Constitution of the State. The leaders were political agitators and revolutionary men, and the action of the Convention was liable to produce a breach of the public peace. I had made up my mind to arrest the head men if the proceedings of the Convention were calculated to disturb the tranquility of the department, but I had no cause for action until they committed the overt act. About forty whites and blacks were killed and about one hundred and sixty were wounded. Everything is now quiet, but I deem it best to maintain a military supremacy in the city for a few days until the affair is fully investigated. I believe the sentiment of the general community is a great regret at this unnecessary cruelty, and that the police could have made any arrest they saw fit without sacrificing lives.

P. H. SHERIDAN,
Major General Commanding.

European Mails—Revolutionary Movement in Hungary—The Exclusion of Austria from the German Confederation—Trouble Anticipated at Vienna.

NEW YORK, August 3.—The Herald's European correspondence goes to show that Louis Kossuth and the Hungarian General Klapka are engaged in fomenting a serious anti-Austrian revolutionary movement in Hungary, and expect that the national cause will be advanced by the aid of Prussia.

Dangerous popular disturbances were looked for in Vienna, should it be officially announced that the Emperor Francis Joseph consents to the exclusion of Austria from the German Confederation.

From Washington

WASHINGTON, August 3.—The conscience fund has accumulated to the sum of sixty thousand dollars, paid in since the close of the war by penitent sinners.

The Attorney General has now under consideration the question whether the President has power to appoint a person to the same office for which he has been rejected by the Senate.

Postmaster General Randall will return on Monday.

Another Fenian Scare—Attack on Canada Expected—Dick Taylor Commander-in-Chief.

NEW YORK, August 3.—A dispatch from Ottowa, Canada West, yesterday, says information has reached the Government that a second Fenian movement against Canada will soon take place, General Dick Taylor to have command in chief. It is thought that the next struggle will be a severe one. War with the United States is not unlikely as things look.

The War in South America—Sailing of Another Spanish Fleet.

NEW YORK, August 3.—The Herald's Havana correspondent says: Another Spanish fleet is about to sail for the South Pacific, to resume the war against the allied South American Republics. It consists of one iron clad, four steam frigates and four transports, with armaments, making a total of one hundred and eighty-four guns. The transports will carry ten or twelve thousand infantry.

Suicide of a Clerk.

NEW YORK, August 3.—A Washington special says: A clerk in the Adjutant-General's office, named Harrison Fosskick, shot himself this morning, in an out-building connected with his residence in this city. The deceased was a married man, but had no children.

Effects of the Fenian Movement.

NEW YORK, August 3.—The Herald's Queenstown, Ireland, correspondent says: The Fenian movement has produced the most injurious effects on the material and industrial interests of Ireland.

THE CELEBRATED STEEL TOOTH HAY RAKES, [illegible]

PH. R. MERTZ,

Banker and Broker,

118 Wood St., near corner of Fifth,

FINANCE AND TRADE.

August 3, 1866.

The New York [illegible] quotations to-day, were as follows: Gold, 148⅞@148⅞; 1881s, 109¾; old 5-20s, 108¾; new ditto, 106¾; 10-40s, 99¾; 7-30s, 104¼. Cleveland & Pitts. R. R., 87¼; Fort Wayne, 102; Erie, 69¾; Western Telegraph, 55¾.

Gold has sligtly advanced over closing quotations of yesterday, and is firmer. 1881 bonds have declined ½ per cent. Old 5-20s are ¼ lower. New 5-20s are firmer but unchanged. 10-40s weak, and 7-30s lower. Small bonds not much in favor.

—The following shows the exports (exclusive of specie) from New York to foreign ports for the week ending July 31, and since the beginning of the year:

For the week	$8,040,364	$2,947,318	$3,343,670
Prev. reported	105,022,360	87,[illegible]	116,123,755
Since Jan. 1	113,062,724	90,552,365	119,467,425

—The Treasury Department will issue Five Twenty bonds of the act of March 3d, 1865, in exchange for Seven Thirty notes dated August 15, 1864, allowing accrued interest on the Seven Thirty notes to the date of exchange, and charging interest on the Five Twenty bonds from May 1st, 1866.

—The publication of the July statement of the public debt will not be made until the 3d or 4th of August. It will show a further reduction, during the last two months, of about $27,000,000, $17,000,000 of which was liquidated in the month of June; $23,000,000 of the remaining $26,000,000 of Certificates of Indebtedness have been redeemed during the last month, leaving only $3,000,000 still outstanding. The statement also shows that 7-30s are being rapidly converted into 5-20s.

—The Treasury of the United States has possession of United States bonds amounting to $328,725,150, as security for circulating notes of National banks, and bonds amounting to $38,310,500, as security for deposits of public moneys in banks designated as depositories. The total amount of securities held is $367,035,650. During the past week notes amounting to $930,800 were issued, making the aggregate circulation $286,136,645. We are, it will be seen, fast approaching the limit of $300,000,000.

—The law preventing the National banks from paying out the notes of the late State banks, under a penalty of 10 per cent, went into effect August 1. This will not, however, prevent these notes from passing among individuals as heretofore, as the old State banks in this State have agreed to redeem their old issues at par in Philadelphia. The New York banks, we learn, will continue to receive this currency on deposit, as heretofore, and send it to Philadelphia or home for redemption.

—The gold deposits at the United States Mint in the month of July amounted to $226,227 26, and the silver deposits to $7,302 25—in all, $233,529 49. The gold coinage in the same time was $371,242 84—nearly all in double eagles. The silver coinage was $14,167, and almost entirely of dollars. The copper coinage of one, two, three and five cent pieces amounted to $123,885. The whole number of pieces coined during the month were 3,601,265 of the value of $512,294 84.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, August 3, 1866. }

There were no new characteristics in the produce markets worthy of special notice. The inquiry for the leading articles is very much restricted, while prices are without essential change.

GRAIN—Wheat continues dull and weak, with a drooping tendency; sale of 100 bushels Club at $2,10; 1 car prime Northwestern at $2,16, delivered on board cars, and 2 cars prime new crop Southern Missouri Red at $2,30@2,35. Corn is quiet and unchanged; sale of 1 car prime Shelled at 75, 1 do do at 78, and 50 bush prime White at 87½. Oats very dull; No. 1 Chicago may be quoted at 42@44, and prime white at 50@52. No movement in Rye or Barley.

FLOUR—Continues very dull, the demand being restricted very much, while prices are barely maintained. We continue to quote at $10 to $10,50 for Spring Wheat; $11 to $11,50 for half Spring and half Winter, and $12 to $12,50 for all Winter. Rye Flour quoted at $6,50.

MILLFEED—In fair demand and firm but unchanged. Sale of 1 car Screenings at $1; 1 car Seconds at $1,30, and 1 car prime white Middlings at $1,65.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is reported steady, with a fair jobbing demand at 17½@17¾ for Shoulders; 19½@20 for Ribbed Sides; 23 for Plain Hams, and 25 @26 for Sugar Cured. Dried Beef is quoted at 26@27, and Mess Pork at $33,50. Lard is dull and unchanged.

POTATOES—Coming in more freely and the market is weaker. We now quote at $2,75@3 per bbl.

SALT—Stock very much reduced, and with a fair demand the market may be quoted firm at $2,60 to $2,65, on track, and the usual advance for small lots from store.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged. We quote at 15 to 16 for Western Reserve, 16@17 for Hamburg, and 20@21 for Goshen.

EGGS—Continue rather dull and weak, but unchanged at 20 to 21—mostly at 20.

APPLES—There is a good demand for prime ripe Apples, while common and inferior are almost unsaleable.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in moderate request at $3 per bushel. We hear an occasional small sale of Timothy at $5,50. No movement in Clover.

PIG LEAD—Is held at 11½@12.

HAY—Is selling at $20 to $25.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, August 3, 1866. }

CRUDE—The transactions in Crude were somewhat restricted to-day, owing to the fact that there is no oil on the spot in which to operate in, and dealers generally seem averse to contracting for future delivery. There are parties willing to sell to arrive on the first water, but refiners are desirous of purchasing to be delivered at a specified time, so as to enable them to recover their refined contracts. So long as the market remains in the present condition with buyers and sellers apart, it is not likely that there will be any particular movement; while so far as prices are concerned, it is impossible to predict with any degree of certainty which course the market may take within the next few weeks. We can report a sale of 425 bbls at 19, packages included; and there was a sale of 400 bbls at 13, in bulk, but the boats containing the oil were some few miles up the river. Private advices from Oil City report Crude excited and firm at $4 at that point.

REFINED—The "offishness" reported in the Philadelphia market on Thursday afternoon was of short duration, as there was again quite a brisk demand for bonded oil to-day, and that, too, at an advance, in some cases. We can report sales of 500 bbls Sept., at 37, free on board cars here; 500 for October at 38; 500 for December at 40; 500 "Brilliant" brand, for same month at 40½, at works—considered equivalent to 40c here, and 500 for August at 43, delivered in Philadelphia, and we are cognizant of the same figure having been offered and refused for 2000 barrels to be delivered the same month. Upon the whole, the market was better to-day than it was yesterday, or in fact, since the commencement of the present excitement, and holders seem pretty sanguine of obtaining still better prices. There is no movement in free oil as yet, though it is held at an advance.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil continue exceedingly light. Messrs. Clark & Co. received 200 bbls of Refined by the Allegheny river, and Waring & King, 54 bbls crude from Smith's Ferry.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, August 3, 1866. }

The transactions in metal have been very much restricted, owing to some of the mills having suspended operations, and besides some of the principal operators are absent from the city. Holders, however, are firm at last week's prices, and the stock of metal is very much reduced; in fact, of some grades the market seems to be entirely bare. We can report a sale of 200 tons Neutral Anthracite at $46 cash; and 50 tons No. 1 Juniata Blooms at $112 cash. In manufactured iron the same dullness and stagnation seems to prevail, while for Nails there is apparently a very fair demand, and prices are firm and well sustained.

New York Cattle Market.

NEW YORK, August 2.—Beeves—Twelve hundred and seventy-four beef cattle arrived at the Hudson City Drove Yards, Bergen to-day. The market was firm at the prices ruling at Allerton's on Monday, and nearly all the cattle were sold. Fair lots of Western steers run out at 17½@18c per lb, and the tops of the best droves brought over 18c. At the National Drove Yards, Yorkville, about 100 cattle were sold at from 17 to 18c per lb.

Sheep and Lambs—There is no material change since yesterday in this market. The anything prices are a shade easier. The sheep now arriving are not prime—only medium, and most of the lots sell at 7@8c per lb. Lambs are steady at from 10@12c per lb. The receipts at Browning's to-day amount to 1200 head; at Bergen Hill, 600, at Chamberlin's about 800.

Swine—Only four car loads of hogs arrived to-day, which were sold at 11½@12c per lb, an advance of ¼c per lb since yesterday.

Chicago Cattle Market.

CHICAGO, August 2.—The fresh receipts of beef cattle to-day at the Union Stock Yards are 1137 head. Entered sales at the different scales, 1,381 head, at prices ranging from $4,50 to $5 for common scalawag cows and bulls, $5,50@6,75 for stock steers and butchers stock, and from $7,50@8,70 for good to very choice smooth steers. The market is active and prices have advanced from 10@15c per 100 lbs for the best grades on yesterday's quotations; common and medium stock are without change in values. There are a large number of purchasers from Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Cleveland and other points, who are taking an average number of good and fair grades of shipping stock.

Mill Feed in Detroit.

DETROIT, August 2.—Mill Feed is dull, with a slight demand. Prices remain very steady from day to day. Quotations to-day are: Middlings, per ton, fine, $19@20; coarse, $15@16; bran, $10,50@11. These are prices for car lots. Corn and oats from mill $29. Corn and peas $22. Bran $15. Middlings, coarse, $18. Fine $25.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, August 3.—The money market remains extremely easy, and the demand is not equal to the supply. Call loans range from 4 to 5 per cent., but there is more business at 5 per cent. Prime discounts are 5 to 6½ per cent. The government securities were quiet and firm this afternoon, closing at the following prices: Coupons, 1881, 109½@109¾; 5-20 do., 1865, 106¾@106⅞; 10-40 Coupons, 99¾@99⅞; July 7-30s, 104¼@104⅜.

The stock market was steady at the last open board. After the session prices were sustained, and there was a fair business done. Petroleum Stocks—Bennehoff Run, 8, 30, $7,00; Buchanan Farm, 20; United States, $7,75; Excelsior, 28. Mining Stocks—Townsville, 96; Gunnell Gold, 115; New York Gold, 115; Smith & Parmlee, 9,50.

The Commercial's money article says: The slight reaction in stocks noted yesterday, continues this morning. There has been a very great realizing among the cliques, and the marvel is their prices have not yielded more. There are buyers found for all the stocks offered, and those who have been expecting that the time would enable them to take in stocks at lower prices, are disappointed. Prices are not yet high enough to draw out any short interests, and this fact alone augurs an effort to carry up quotations much higher. The miscellaneous list was slightly off in sympathy with Railroad stocks. Governments quiet but steady. Reports are current that private dispatches have been received quoting 5-20s at London, yesterday, at 68½, but we are unable to authenticate the rumor. The reports that large orders were received by cable, yesterday, for 5-20s, appear to have been intended for effect upon the gold premium. [illegible] shipments, [illegible] will be made to-morrow at the board quotations. Governments were unchanged, except for old 5-20s, which were ⅛ lower.

Money continues very abundant; the banks have large idle balances and are offering round sums on call at 3@4 per cent, but meet the ordinary counter demand at 5 per cent, which is the most common rate. The transactions in discounts are merely nominal at 5@6 per cent, being the prevailing rate for prime names. Gold is again weak. Some of the importers and bankers, who are understood to be largely short in gold, have made application to the Secretary of the Treasury to relieve the market, by inaugurating the weekly sales of gold.

RIVER NEWS.

As the water has become so low that navigation is virtually suspended, it is hardly worth while reporting the stage of water. There is in the neighborhood of eighteen inches, and there has not been a single arrival or departure aside from the Monongahela river packets since our last report.

Mr. Jas. Russell, clerk of the Columbia, arrived here from St. Louis on Thursday night, having come through by rail. As we stated in our last issue, the Columbia is laid at that point, and Mr. Russell reports steamboat matters pretty dull there, with but little prospect of any immediate improvement. It seems that there are quite a number of Pittsburgh steamboatmen in that city engaged in "tramping brick," and some of them it is hinted are getting very short of funds.

The Cincinnati Commercial of 2d, says:

Capt. J. H. Rice took command of the Pine Grove yesterday. Mr. R. H. Kerr has control of affairs in the office.

Mr. J. Wilson Johnston, Secretary of the Memphis Packet company, received a dispatch from E. A. Rollins, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, stating that all internal bills of lading were exempt from stamp tax.

The Navigator, in command of Capt. James Good, has been engaged to carry passengers for the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad Company, until the repairs to the culvert between this city and Lawrenceburg can be completed.

The Silver Cloud No. 2 yesterday reshipped all her freight on the Messenger for New Orleans. The Messenger will positively leave for New Orleans on Saturday.

The Louisville Courier says:

The Tahlequah, from lower ports, discharged some 40 hhds of tobacco at [illegible]. She is bound for Pittsburgh, but will hardly reach that port this trip.

The Great Western, one of the boats of the bygone age, though once a famous Cincinnati [illegible], come up through the canal yesterday en route for Madison. She is probably twenty years old, near about old enough to vote.

The Louisville Democrat gets off the following "good un" on a perplexed Dutchman:

An enthusiastic Teuton, from Cincinnati, came down here with the "Singer Bummer's." He boarded the Wild Wagoner last trip, to return. He was full of beer, any quantity of songs, and as soon as the boat got under way, he, of course went to sleep. When he awoke he was at Cincinnati. Stupid with the "dead load" of lager in his stomach, he looked up to the wharf, and going back to the clerk said: "Mine Gott; mine friend, what is te matter mit te pote? I kit on dis feller kisterday, to go Sinskinnati, and I goes to sleep. Ven I vakes up, de pote stans still, yust te saim already. I comes to Lewisvill mit tem Sangerbrunts, and tem ouder fellers all goes home, and I don't go mit. Vell, you voost gib my two tollars and I go on dat ouder pote. Tat's vat's te matter mit me." The clerk didn't give him the two dollars, and the excited "Singer bummer" went out of the cabin saying: "Youm kin yust go to hell mit dat two dollar. If I getch you in Sinskinnater, I shows you somethings." He went over on the Lytle, paid his passage, went to sleep, and when he woke up he discovered he was on his return trip to this. When he was told of his mistake he shouted: "Somebody makes fool mit me. I drown myself but I cannot shwim, Gottleunighter, tenderweiter!"

SEMPER PARATUS.
PRO BO NO PUBLICO.

Yet they say 'tis a heinous crime the way business is conducted. Some say it is murdering the trade. Others say it is against his own interests. We don't believe it. Let us see what the true state of affairs is. The truth is this: That there is a new establishment, neatly fitted up, at No. 87 Market street, Pittsburgh, over which W. G. MAHAFFEY presides, and in which boots and shoes are sold at prices so low as to astonish the natives. Hear me [illegible] a few articles, while all other articles are sold correspondingly low. Ladies' Congress Lasting Gaiters selling at $1.50; Ladies' Sewed Morocco Boots at $2.00; Men's Congress Lasting Gaiters at $2.00; Children's Slippers of all kinds; Children's Morocco Shoes at 50c. A large lot of gent's prime fine calf balmorals and gaiters just received and selling exceedingly low. In addition to this he keeps any article in the boot or shoe line, and manufactures to order Ladies' congress lasting gaiters, morocco boots, ladies' and gentlemen's fancy cloth embroidered slippers. Likewise gent's first class calf boots made to order $1.00 lower than any other first class house in the city. Lasts fit up to fit the feet, which we would advise every man to have of his own. Ladies and gent's fancy cloth slipper uppers, silk embroidered, for sale. Wherein consists the crime. It is selling low, we plead guilty; and by selling low we expect to preserve our own interests, and make quick sales and many of them. Inviting you to call and see for yourselves we leave the subject with you.

FLUID EXTRACT
SARSAPARILLA,
COMBINED WITH
Iodide of Lime,
PREPARED FOR
G. W. PETTES, BOSTON,
BY
James R. Nichols & Co.,
MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,
MANUFACTURERS OF THE
ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK
WITH
Protoxide of Iron,
Which has become so favorably known as a
Tonic and Restorative,
By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN A COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME, presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Pale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of its medicinal effect and the pleasant attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination, in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first class Druggists.
